

Dear Member,

C.Gheewala is a financial communication platform to guide all of you to grow your money either as a short term trader as well as long term investor on the basis of fundamental parameters and on technical grounds. We have observed that neither only fundamental nor only technical suggestions are sufficient to take proper decision at a proper time. Hence someone takes trading or investment position with the support of both fundamentals and technical factor, which tends to perform very brilliantly. We have observed in numerous instances that trader or investor take the entry in the capital market at the right time but temptation and market environment does not allow him to exit at a proper time. Exit is more important as the entry level is. Side by side, if a stock looks excellent on the basis of fundamental one cannot ignore the support of technical tools.

Short term traders should give more focus on technical than fundamental. While long term investors should pick the stock not at a time when he came to know about the good performance or any information of the particular stock. Timing of such an investment should be guided by technical factors.

Volatility in the market mostly remain more time across the year, which confuse investors / traders when to buy, how to buy or / and what to hedge. The purpose of C.Gheewala is to make our two way communication more profitable, economize and more addictive. We are in capital market since 1980 and have a rich experience of the financial market. We also cater our services in the following fields

As you know that we are in the Capital Market field since 28 years and trying to provide you good services. To add one more product in the services is to provide you complete technical analysis software which will help to Investor and as well as broker to give idea of entry and exit level of scrip. The main benefit of software is to get an idea of market and scrip wise on daily, weekly and monthly basis which will help to investor for making and reshuffling of portfolio. To broker, it helps to their clients to give guidance for markets and for any particular scrip. We are providing our calls or tips on SMS, Yahoo Messenger and Live Chat room on www.cgheewala.com, an informative financial portal.

Research team of C.Gheewala group express deeply thanks for supporting and inspiring us for better services. Our clients are using our services across the India and abroad too. We proudly announce to inform you that Member of Leading Stock and Commodity Brokers, sub brokers and investors are using our services and software prepared by us which will guide you to take buy or sell position along with levels for entry & exits, which are useful to minimize loses and maximize profit on your trading and /or investment portfolio.
